The Mission of Chicago Building Congress

Chicago Building Congress is the “cornerstone” of Greater Chicagoland’s dynamic Building Industry, for it unites diverse members of the City’s building community in common interests and purpose.

Chicago Building Congress was formed in 1939. Its principal objectives are...

- Uniting the Building Industry in a shared purpose.
- Advancing the art, science, and technology of Chicago’s Building Industry.
- Providing Industry Professionals with networking and educational opportunities.

Chicago Building Congress is the only vertically-integrated trade association serving the Chicago area. Its varied membership includes real estate professionals, general contractors, subcontractors, engineering firms, architects, labor unions, associations, governmental entities, banks, insurance providers, consultants, law firms, accounting firms, media publications, material manufacturers, and suppliers. It is an equal opportunity trade association.

Chicago Building Congress is organized with Officers, a Board of Directors, an Executive Committee, Committee Chairs, Division Chairs, and Additional Directors.

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Chicago Building Congress brings together key players in Chicago's dynamic Building Industry with educational programs and seminars that energize and motivate the membership. CBC provides a forum for exchanging ideas and making contacts within the industry through monthly networking opportunities at luncheon meetings and events.

CBC sponsors informative, topical, stimulating programs that encourage communication among professionals within the Building Industry. Regular monthly luncheon speakers include leading industry experts in architecture, engineering, building, and development.
